

For immediate release

Contact: Anne Connolly Saganic
January 7, 2014

asaganic@falmouthhousingtrust.org
508-540-2370, office
508-566-9321, cell

Falmouth Housing Trust & West Falmouth Village Association Host Presentation on Flood Maps at West Falmouth Library

The Falmouth Housing Trust in collaboration with the West Falmouth Village Association and the West Falmouth Library will hold an informational presentation on the new FEMA, (Federal Emergency Management Agency) Maps this Monday, January 13th at 7pm in the West Falmouth Library's Community Room.

Guests will hear from Eladio R. Gore, Building Commissioner for the Town of Falmouth, on building codes changes and compliance. Bob Shea, Geographic Information System Coordinator for the Town of Falmouth, will access maps electronically and display various zones for the audience located within the Town of Falmouth.

Senior Loan Officer, Addie M. Drolette of Rockland Trust will discuss the effect the new maps will have on properties that are mortgaged. Douglas D. MacDonald, of Murray and MacDonald Insurance Services, Inc. will follow Ms. Drolette's presentation with an explanation and discussion on FIRM, (Flood Insurance Rate Maps) and what the implementation schedule for July 2014 will mean for consumers.

The panel's presentation will last roughly 40 minutes with a question and answer period to follow. The presentation is free and open to the public.

The West Falmouth Library is located at 575 West Falmouth Highway, (Route 28A) in West Falmouth Village. For more information on the Falmouth Housing Trust programs, contact the Trust via email, info@FalmouthHousingTrust.org, or on-line at www.FalmouthHousingTrust.org.